SENATOR TUNNEY TO SPEAK AT USD

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

U.S. Senator John V. Tunney will address the University of San Diego Law School Wednesday, January 14 at 12:00 noon in More Hall. The speech is open to the public free of charge.

Tunney, California's junior senator, will speak on major reforms of the nation's anti-trust laws; energy and the environment; Senate Bill 1; and the role of attorneys in the political process. He will answer questions at the end of his speech.

Tunney is chairperson of the Judiciary subcommittee on Constitutional Rights and chairperson of the Science and Technology subcommittee. His recently published book, The Changing Dream, discusses the shortages in natural resources and the relationship of big business and big government to the energy problem.

Tunney's speech is sponsored by the Speakers Forum, Student Bar Association.
